

Japanese Dress-up Day

On Tuesday 5th December students and staff have the opportunity to have some fun dressing up in Japanese costume to celebrate our awesome Japanese Language Education Program at Oakleigh South Primary School. There is no cost involved for this celebration. Please also consider the potential of hot weather when deciding on your costumes.

Some dress-up suggestions:

Obvious one

Karate/Judo outfit, Kimono Dress (No Chinese dress, please)

Funky one

Characters such as Pikachu or other Pokémon, Hello Kitty, Nintendo characters such as Mario Brothers, Ninja & Samurai, Japanese street fashion (Harajuku & Gothic)

Odd one

Cherry blossom, Bullet Train, Sumo, Mount Fuji, Sushi, Iron chef, Asimo.

Easy one

White T-shirt with a red circle (Flag)
