This term, our Year 6 students will be focussing on Cyber Safety as part of their Integrated Studies Unit. To support their unit of work, the B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation Commission has offered a free incursion to teach students how to be safe when they are on line and how to deal with cyber bullying.

The B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation Commission is an organisation dedicated to promoting tolerance, justice and multiculturalism and tackling issues of racism, hatred and anti-Semitism. They do this in many ways, one of which is through educational programs and services.

Next week they we will be visiting our school to present your children with their social media program - Click against Hate. Click against Hate engages with students and teaches them how to be safe when they are on line. They will be covering a range of topics, including how to deal with cyber bullying, how to determine if a website is credible, invasion of privacy, racism and defamation.

The presenters are trained educators with more than 20 years' experience in the classroom. Your children will not be exposed to any graphic images but will be taught how to navigate the internet safely, what it means to be an innocent by-stander, a victim of bullying or a bully. The classroom teacher will be present throughout the session.

Thanking you,
